

Professional Consultation

Barnardos Children's Bereavement Service

Contact:

bereavement@barnardos.ie

Who might be part of a consultation?

- Professionals who are supporting a bereaved child and family
- Single service or interagency

When might a consultation be helpful?

- Following a traumatic bereavement where the support required is complex

How much time is needed?

- 1 hour

What does a Professional Consultation offer?

- An opportunity to bring professionals together to share about what's happening for the child and family
- Psychoeducation about systemic dynamics of trauma and grief in children and families
- A coordinated assessment of the presence of trauma and grief
- The development of a cohesive plan of short, medium and longterm interventions
- Follow up resources as needed